

TRAVEL GUIDE FROM THE UK TO THE DORDOGNE BY AIR

There are several low-cost operators offering cheap flights to the Dordogne, and our nearest airport is Bergerac located 30 mins away.

FlyBe

Bergerac

Southampton
Birmingham
Exeter
Edinburgh
Manchester

Bordeaux

Birmingham
Southampton

Toulouse

Birmingham

Jet2.com

Bergerac

Leeds Bradford

Toulouse

Manchester

Limoges

Southampton

CityJet

Brive

London City
Amsterdam

Ryanair

Bergerac

Stansted
Liverpool
East Midlands
Bristol
Brussels

Bordeaux

Stansted
Edinburgh
Cork
Brussels

Rodez

Stansted
Dublin
Brussels

Brive

Stansted

Limoges

Stansted
East Midlands
Bristol
Liverpool
Leeds Bradford

EasyJet

Bordeaux

Belfast
Bristol
Gatwick
Glasgow
Liverpool
Luton
Amsterdam
Brussels International
Lille
Basel
Geneva
Lyon
Nice

Transavia

Bergerac

Rotterdam

British Airways

Bordeaux

London Gatwick
Helsinki

Toulouse

Heathrow

Auberge de La Salvetat – small Dordogne family hotel where you are guaranteed a friendly welcome and great food, offering 14 bedrooms with en-suites throughout, infinity swimming pool, set in a stunning location between Bergerac and Sarlat. Excellent vineyards, chateaux, golf courses and picture postcard villages of Cadouin, Monpazier, Belves, Beaumont and Issigeac all close by.

For details of availability see www.lasalvetat.com. © Auberge de La Salvetat 2013

BY TRAIN

Regular Eurostar train services run from London-Waterloo to Lille and a TGV (high speed train) from the same station in Lille to Bordeaux (total journey time 9 hrs).

Alternatively, there is a TGV from Lille to Libourne where you can change to a train that takes you directly to Bergerac (from Bergerac it is 40 minutes to La Salvetat). There are also connections that take you to Marmande.

EuroStar at www.eurostar.com

SNCF at www.sncf.com

at www.raileurope.com

BY FERRY

at www.poferries.com

P & O Stena operate regular Ferry crossings from Dover/Portsmouth to Calais/Cherbourg/Le Havre.

at www.aferry.co.uk/ferry-to-france-ferries-uk.htm

Ferries to France on all routes

at www.BrittanyFerries.co.uk

Operating regular crossings:

Cork - Roscoff

Plymouth - Roscoff

Poole - Cherbourg

Portsmouth - St-Malo / Cherbourg / Caen

Our clients tell us that the most relaxing start to the holiday is Portsmouth to St Malo, a longer ferry journey but then only a six hour drive through to La Salvetat.

Low fares highspeed to France at www.hoverspeed.co.uk

Dover - Calais in an hour..

at www.eurotunnel.co.uk

Only 35 minutes. Folkestone to Calais.

Auberge de La Salvetat – small Dordogne family hotel where you are guaranteed a friendly welcome and great food, offering 14 bedrooms with en-suites throughout, infinity swimming pool, set in a stunning location between Bergerac and Sarlat. Excellent vineyards, chateaux, golf courses and picture postcard villages of Cadouin, Monpazier, Belves, Beaumont and Issigeac all close by.

For details of availability see www.lasalvetat.com. © Auberge de La Salvetat 2013

BY CAR

Travelling through France is easy on the autoroutes.

The following sites have route plans for you to customize – just set the destination as La Salvetat, postcode 24480.

at www.viamichelin.com

at www.mappy.co.uk

CAR HIRE

Also www.novacarhire.com

Car hire France from Nova at excellent rates, with immediate confirmation on all reservations.

Alternatives available at Bordeaux and / or Bergerac are:

at www.hertz.com

at www.europcar.com

at www.avis.com

at www.buggscarhire.com

Auberge de La Salvetat – small Dordogne family hotel where you are guaranteed a friendly welcome and great food, offering 14 bedrooms with en-suites throughout, infinity swimming pool, set in a stunning location between Bergerac and Sarlat. Excellent vineyards, chateaux, golf courses and picture postcard villages of Cadouin, Monpazier, Belves, Beaumont and Issigeac all close by.
For details of availability see www.lasalvetat.com. © Auberge de La Salvetat 2013

Hotels on route

at www.hotelformule1.com

at www.accor.com

at www.hotels.com

Auberge de La Salvetat – small Dordogne family hotel where you are guaranteed a friendly welcome and great food, offering 14 bedrooms with en-suites throughout, infinity swimming pool, set in a stunning location between Bergerac and Sarlat. Excellent vineyards, chateaux, golf courses and picture postcard villages of Cadouin, Monpazier, Belves, Beaumont and Issigeac all close by.
For details of availability see www.lasalvetat.com. © Auberge de La Salvetat 2013

at www.ibishotel.com

at www.envergure.fr/pclassefr

at www.etaphotel.com

Auberge de La Salvetat – small Dordogne family hotel where you are guaranteed a friendly welcome and great food, offering 14 bedrooms with en-suites throughout, infinity swimming pool, set in a stunning location between Bergerac and Sarlat. Excellent vineyards, chateaux, golf courses and